Sorry for the infrequent updates lately. With the arrival of my second child, my photography time has been cut back quite a bit. She is a time consuming ball of energy and when you couple that with my busy travel schedule, I just haven't had time to upload many of the thousands of photos that sit on my desktop waiting for attention. The following galleries have been recently updated, click on the linked galleries to see the photos: Cincinnati Zoo, Krohn Conservatory, Great American Ballpark, Washington D.C. & Birmingham, Alabama.
