

Rome, Italy Gallery Added

Thursday, 17 December 2009

It is always a pleasure to spend time in Europe and my recent trip to Italy was no exception. I stayed in the heart of Ancient Rome in a hotel directly across the street from the Roman Coliseum. While in country, I was able to experience the local side of the city and was shown around by a gracious host. It was a fantastic experience mixed with incredible food. The Rome gallery can be viewed here.
